

Resilience & Preparedness Group

Resilience & Preparedness Group:

- community sector;
- emergency services;
- DWS;
- government agencies;
- CSU evaluation team

Shared Responsibility:

"Disaster resilience is the collective responsibility of all sectors of society, including all levels of government, business, the non-government sector, and individuals".

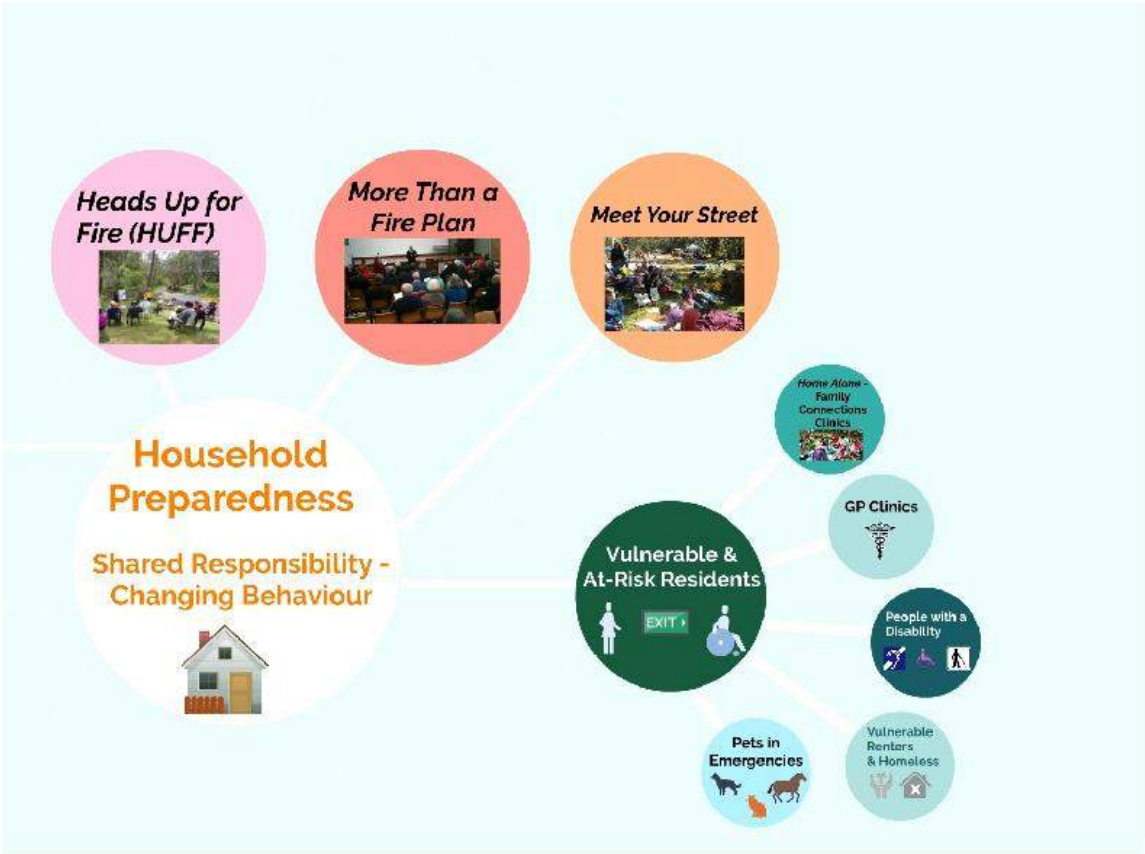

National Strategy for Disaster Resilience: Building our nation's resilience to disasters

Household Preparedness

Shared Responsibility -
Changing Behaviour

Heads Up for Fire (HUFF)

More Than a Fire Plan

Meet Your Street

Vulnerable & At-Risk Residents

Home Alone - Family Connections Clinics

GP Clinics

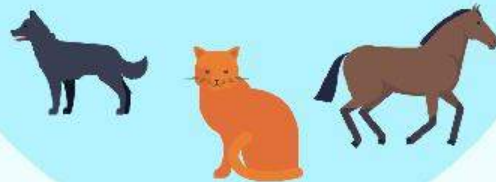

People with a Disability

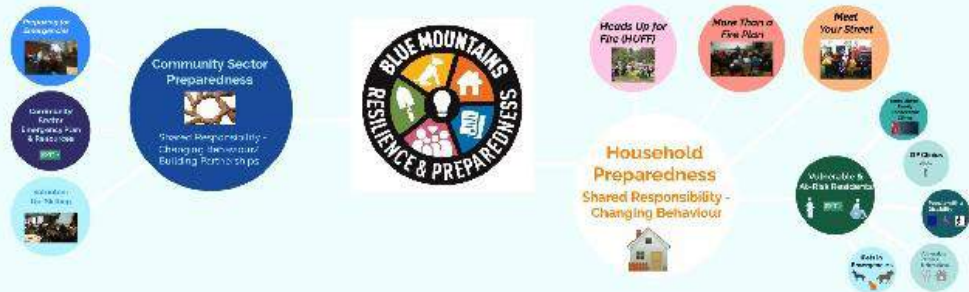

Vulnerable Renters & Homeless

Pets in Emergencies

Community Sector Preparedness

Shared Responsibility -
Changing Behaviour/
Building Partnerships

Planning for Emergencies

Community Sector
Emergency Plan
& Resources

Volunteer
Up-Skilling

Community Sector Preparedness

Shared Responsibility -
Changing Behaviour/
Building Partnerships

Planning for Emergencies

Community Sector Emergency Plan & Resources

EXIT ▶

Volunteer Up-Skilling

Residents in the Blue Mountains are better prepared

+ 29% = 90%

+ 19% = 59%

+ 17% = 60%

+ 14% = 77%

+ 11% = 75%

+ 6% = 81%

No. of Activities	No. of Participants	No. of Survey Respondents
70	1,500+	770

Resources for residents

Useful Information for Emergencies

Key Points for Seniors to Prepare for Emergencies

Community Sector Organisations in the Blue Mountains are better prepared

No. of activities	No. of survey respondents
8	78

Resources for the community sector

Emergency Procedures Template

Get Ready! Guide

Since 2014, initiatives led by the R & P Group have reached approximately of Blue Mountains households (3,000+)

Of those who have attended an R & P initiative, an estimated 90% have taken action to prepare for an emergency

R&P Group - Winner of NSW 'Community' Award
Resilient Australia Awards, 2015

