Blue Mountains Aboriginal Culture & Resource Centre 4782 6569

As at 28 Aug 2020:

We are continuing to work from home and deliver services to our community safely with respects to our clients and keeping them safe. As restrictions are changing all the time we are aware of the need to keep our mob safe so we will still deliver with respect to social distancing and good hygiene.

As you may know we have made the difficult decision to shut the doors of ACRC so as to eliminate the risk of transmission to our vulnerable clients and each other of the COVID 19 virus, this also means that sadly , all Elders Lunches , Morning Teas and Outings and the Koori Playgroup are still cancelled until further notice We're continuing to provide Elders Support and Family Support through phone, email and video conferencing through either skype or FaceTime on your smart phone .

Transport service is continuing with social distancing safety measures still in place.

All staff will be working from home and will be contactable during normal office hours on their mobiles.

Please give us a call if you would like to talk this over further on how we can support you currently if you need someone to do any shopping done or any errands that still support the social distancing approach eg letters posted, medication picked up etc. If you would just like to have a yarn give us a call. We will be calling in daily with clients to see how everyone is going if you have not heard from us give me a call so we can work out how best to support you through these times.

We will keep posting as we receive information as it changes but please feel free to call us on Monday-Thursday from 9am to 4pm (closed for lunch 12.30 pm to 1pm). Fridays 9 am -1 pm.

Elizabeth Evatt Community Legal Centre 1300 363 967

As at 27 Aug 2020:

Due to the concerning spread of COVID-19 we have developed the following plans.

- Staff have returned to working from the office but are only advising clients by phone rather than face-to-face.
- Phone advice lines will operate at usual times. Messages left outside these times will be returned in a timely manner as usual.
- All face to face outreaches in Blue Mountains, Lithgow and Bathurst have now been changed to phone or video conference advice. Phone legal advice line will still operate on 4704 0207 on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, and Wednesday afternoon. Callers can leave a message if we are talking to other callers. This can be used for people who are unable to call us about their legal issue directly, or to avoid having to tell their story twice.
- The Tenancy Advice Line on 4704 0201 is still operational on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 9.30 am to 12.30 pm.
- While courts remain in operation we will attend court where we are already acting for the client, this may include attendance via telephone. All current clients have direct lines for their solicitor and/or email.
- Penrith Legal Aid - will be conducting all advice services by telephone. Criminal law outreach at Katoomba Court on Mondays will still take place, however appointments must now be booked through their office on 4732 3077.
- Orange Legal Aid - all face to face outreaches across Bathurst, Parkes, Orange, Forbes and Cowra have also been cancelled. Contact Orange Legal Aid on 6362 8022 for phone advice appointments.

Mountains Community Resource Network (MCRN) 4759 3599

As at 31 Aug 2020:

- MCRN staff are essentially working from home and will remain in self-isolation until health authorities give us the “all clear”.
- The MCRN Offices are therefore closed until further notice; and all Meeting Room bookings likewise cancelled for the foreseeable.
- All scheduled meetings and interagencies will go ahead at the normal time, via video- or teleconferencing
 - interagency Agendas and Outlook invitations, therefore, will contain the link, conference number and password, which you will need to be able to join in;
 - obviously, this will require you to have access to a mobile, PC or laptop with internet connection and the Zoom app loaded (this is free to download & use).
- We will all be exploring ways delivering what services and supports we can in different ways and through different media (and some of you have already become very creative 😊) s– of course, BM services are already very skilled at doing things differently, so I know we will manage this challenge as well.

Mountains Youth Services Team (MYST) 1300 00 6978

As at 20 Aug 2020:

MYST is again delivering face to face to individual clients who are not showing any signs of illness, following strict procedures of social distancing and hand sanitising and disinfecting. Call MYST on 1300 00 6978 to book in and see a youth worker, case manager or counsellor.

Zoom catch up's are still available for those who chose this or those that are unwell.

MYST is starting group activities again from this term, we have a RAGE program starting this week at Springwood Youth Centre and we have started scheduled Drop-In's (you must book in for these as places are limited). We have a maximum of 9 young people and 2 workers in the Springwood Centre and 12 young people and 2 workers at the Katoomba Centre, adhering to the one person to 4sqm rule. We have COVID Safe plans for both Centres.

Outdoor Explore programs are also running again from this term..

Mypower Foundations 0477 755 908

As at 20 Aug 2020:

Mypower Foundations are still providing supports to our clients (wearing masks and gloves where we cannot socially distance) and have some capacity at this stage for clients who need domestic assistance, help with groceries and other errands, personal care, and social interaction and connection, skill building etc.

We have completed COVID 19 training, and have completed a Covid 19 Safety plan and are registered as a Covid safe business. Support people have been instructed to stay home if showing the slightest symptoms of being unwell, and we will send an alternative worker (very different to our usual model, as we usually prefer the same worker/client to build rapport).

We can offer face-to-face video calling if the client or worker is unable to leave the home due to illness, or must self isolate.

Hamper Hotline: 0472 656 472 (Upper Blue Mountains Salvos)

We have had to move to appointments only, no longer doing drop in. Appointments can be made by calling 0460 816 360.

The Emergency Relief Assessment Team is on 1300 371 288, bookings must be made to pick up an assessment card on 0460 816 360

Things are changing so quickly, we will endeavor to keep open as long as we can but soon we will need to move to phone assessments only.

Moneycare Financial Counselling Services

We have transitioned to working from home and providing our financial counselling service via phone.

Like yourselves, we're feeling the uncertainty of these times. Fortunately, we're still able to provide our holistic service to people in financial difficulty or changed circumstances (mortgages, credit cards, personal loans, electricity & more). There may be ongoing stress for the person or as a direct result from COVID_19. Our lines are open and ready with up to date information on financial hardship and what's available for you.

Each year thousands of people benefit from connecting with us and tell us:

"I can now sleep at night"; "I wished I'd known sooner"; "Best call I've ever made"

Please contact us via one of the details below. Our service is free & independent.

PS: Make tomorrow easier by contacting us and taking action today.

TAFE

As at 22 Jul 2020:

Update for students about coronavirus (COVID-19)

With the easing of restrictions, TAFE NSW has implemented a range of new proactive measures to limit the impact of COVID-19 on how you may study with TAFE NSW.

These new measures allow us to deliver controlled face to face learning, alongside connected learning, to provide you with the best possible experience and educational outcomes in Term 3.

No matter how training is delivered, TAFE NSW has state-wide guidelines, and risk management practices in place to ensure the safety and wellbeing of all staff and students.

For general questions about starting your study, this student readiness hub answers your common queries, like resetting a password, accessing online services, using campus facilities and more. You can also use this hub to request support.

Campuses and libraries are open

Our campuses are open and we will continue to provide the following support:

- Childcare centres
- Counselling
- Disability services
- Aboriginal support
- International support
- Student associations

TAFE NSW has state-wide social distancing guidelines, and risk management practices in place to ensure the safety and wellbeing of all those who deliver and use our services.

These guidelines allow library teams to provide a locally appropriate range of services based on the size, space and availability of facilities, student numbers and their primary needs.

Wentworth Community Housing 4777 8000

As at 20 Aug 2020:

Tenancy Services

Wentworth has put several measures in place to protect its tenants, staff, and the organisation from the outbreak of COVID-19 (Novel Coronavirus).

As well as closing our office, all non-essential face to face meetings or visits have been suspended until further notice. This includes all property inspections and tenant engagement events, including Tenant Advisory Group meetings.

Stay safe and stay tuned for more information. All of our staff are still contactable during business hours via phone or email and we are here to respond to your needs.

You can also phone us between 8:30am and 4:00pm or email us on admin@wentworth.org.au.

Specialist Homelessness Service

The specialist homelessness service continues to operate fully – this includes assertive outreach to rough sleepers, attendance at Junction 142, case management visits and our intake service either in the Penrith office or via phone or email.

People at risk of homelessness or who are homeless can call the Intake line on 4777 8041 or via email: community.services@wentworth.org.au.
